SUMMARY

Release Announcement

This release of ᴇRAD RIS 4.2025.010 resolves a TechLive issue where RGB highlight colors were not consistent, a Payment Control calculation issue on manual overrides and a memory leak issue with GUI controls.

⚠️ Note that ᴇRAD RIS 4.2025.009 was an internal test release and was not commercialized.

The 4.2025.009 Resolved Issue #36518 has been merged forward into this 4.2025.010 release.

The 4.2025.009 New feature #36188 will be merged forward into a future release and is not included in this 4.2025.010 release.

Resolved Issues

This release resolves the following issues:

Category	Redmine #	Subject
Integration	36112	Resolves Integration issue where the TechLive RGB highlight colors did not match values used for TechLive Admin in light and dark modes.
Payment Control	36497	Resolved Payment Control issue where manual override values were being incorrectly divided by two before the insurance calculations, resulting in inaccurate values being displayed.
Thick Client GUI	36518	Resolved Thick Client GUI issue with Telerik controls that was causing memory leaks within the application.
